Description

For Sale: 2000 Jeep Wrangler – Well-Maintained, Great Condition

This 2000 Jeep Wrangler is a solid, reliable ride that's ready for both the road and the trail. The body is in good condition overall, with the paint still shining nicely. The only rust visible is on the front driver-side fender—a common issue for Wranglers of this era. Frame rails, another known trouble spot for these vehicles, are in excellent shape (see photos).

It comes equipped with like-new Hankook Dynapro 31x10.50R15LT tires with less than 5,000 miles on them—plenty of tread left for your adventures.
